

MY NAME IS AND I LIKE

A Few Basics - Beginner (KS-1/2)

Learning outcomes: To be able to express preferences, to be able to build sentences out of several components

Game 1 instructions:

- Create a circle with chairs.
- Ask one pupil to start with “My name is ...and I like...”. The first letters have to be similar.
- Example: “My name is Sarah and I like to sing”.
- Optional: Ask pupils to introduce their partner in front of the class.
- Pupils take it in turns going around the circle until everyone has said something.

Game 2 instructions:

- Ask pupils to create small groups.
- Hand each group a copy of “A few Basics” flashcards (page 3) and jumble them up on the tables.
- Pupils have to turn the jumbled sentence components into accurate sentences.
- Ask pupils after group work to write down their sentences on the “Introductory Sentences” worksheet (page 2).

Materials required:

- “Introductory sentences” worksheet (page 2).
- “A few basics” flashcards (page 3).

Tip!

Laminate the flashcards and reuse them!
