

-ING VS. -ED

Fluency Boost - Work & School
Beginner (KS1/2)

Learning outcomes: To be able to understand the difference between adjectives ending in -ing and -ed.

Instructions:

- Print the “-ing vs. -ed” worksheet (pages 2) and the Jigsaw Reading task (page 3).
- Review the differences between adjectives ending in -ing and -ed with the class.
- Distribute the worksheets to pupils and allow them to read exercise A and fill in the gaps.
- Pupils move onto exercise B, also filling in the gaps.
- Discuss the answers as a class.
- Pupils then complete the Jigsaw Reading task (page 3), where pupils work in pairs. First, pupil A reads their text, saying ‘blank’ if there is a blank space, whilst pupil B listens. Then pupil B reads their text, again saying ‘blank’ where necessary. The pair then work together from their two different texts to work out which words are missing from the blanks and the correct form of the adjective, whether it ends in -ing or -ed.

Differentiation:

- ▶ One of the texts for exercise C could be completed as a class and displayed in the classroom. Pupils then work in pairs to discover how to fill in the gaps on their own sheet.
- ★ One of the texts for exercise C could be completed as a class and displayed in the classroom. Pupils then work in pairs to discover how to fill in the gaps on their own

Materials required:

- One “-ing vs. -ed” worksheets (pages 2 and 3) per pupil

Tip!

The FlashAcademy® lesson Beginner > Work & School > -ing vs. -ed can also be completed prior to the lesson or completed for homework to consolidate lesson work.

-ING VS. -ED

Fluency Boost - Work & School
Beginner (KS1/2)

A. Read the sentences and fill in the gaps

-ing

Use to describe objects which cause an emotion.

The film was boring.
My homework was challenging.
The documentary was fascinating.
The autobiography was inspiring.
The swim was _____.

-ed

Use to describe the emotion you are feeling as a result of the object.

Jane was bored watching the film.
I felt challenged by the homework.
Tony was fascinated by the film.
I was _____ after reading the autobiography.
I felt energised after my swim.

B. Fill in the gap with the adjective form of the word in brackets.

The film was _____. (excite)
My dog is _____ by the dark. (worry)
The fireworks were _____. (amaze)
I was _____ by this question. (puzzle)
He is _____ after his run. (exhaust)
That slimy banana peel is _____. (disgust)
Sue was _____ by her surprise party. (shock)
We went for a spa day which was very _____. (relax)

Tip!

If you'd like more practice with adjectives,
check out the FlashAcademy® lesson:
Beginner > Work & School > -ing vs. -ed.

-ING VS. -ED

Fluency Boost - Work & School
Beginner (KS1/2)

C. In this task, read out your text to your partner, saying 'blank' if there's a gap. As you're reading, your partner will try and fill in the gaps in their text using your text. Then, your partner will read their text, so you can fill in any gaps in your sheet. Be careful, you may have to change the form of the adjective!

Pupil A

Let me tell you about our recent family holiday, which was very eventful. We were meant to drive to our destination; however, that morning, the car made a worrying sound. Therefore, we decided to go by bus. I was _____ we got to our location, a small village in the middle of nowhere! It was so peaceful that the rooster's crowing startled us on the first morning. On the first day, we went for a walk through the countryside and discovered a _____ village. On the walk back, my mum found the scenery captivating and took many photos. My sister was also _____ by the wildlife, such as frogs and newts. It was a great holiday and I really enjoyed it.

Pupil B

Let me tell you about our recent family holiday which was very eventful. We were meant to drive to our destination; however, that morning, we were _____ by the sound the car made. Therefore, we decided to go by bus. It was amazing we got to our location, a small village in the middle of nowhere! It was so peaceful that we were _____ when the rooster crowed on the first morning. On the first day, we went for a walk through the countryside and we were charmed by the village we discovered. On the walk back, my mum was _____ by the scenery and took many photos. My sister also enjoyed the fascinating wildlife, such as frogs and newts. It was a great holiday and I really enjoyed it.