

TO, TWO, TOO

To is a preposition showing direction.

E.g. 'I went to the waterfall.'

To is also used in the infinitive form of a verb.

E.g. 'He would like to go there.'

Two is the written form of the number 2.

E.g. 'He has two cats.'

A large white number '2' centered on a green square background.

Too is an adverb meaning 'more than is wanted or needed'.

E.g. 'It is too hot.'

Too can mean 'also'

E.g. 'She is coming too.'

